	OUTGOING CALLS	INCOMING CALLS	SMS	MMS	INTERNET (CZK/MB)
Zone 1	5.20 (6.29)	1.37 (1.66)	1.64 (1.98)	5.48 (6.63)	5.48 (6.63)
Zone 2	28.93 (35.–)	14.88 (18.–)	7.93 (9.60)	13.72 (16.60)	61.98 (75.–)

In Zone 1, incoming calls are charged per second (1+1); for outgoing calls the first 30 seconds are charged as a block and then the service is charged per second (30+1), data in 1 kB increments. In Zones 2 and 3, the billing scheme for both outgoing and incoming calls is 60+60; data are charged in 10 kB increments. The aforementioned prices of outgoing calls apply to calls to the Czech Republic, in the country visited and to another country in the same area. If a call is made between two different areas, the price applicable to the higher area is charged. (Example: When making a call from area 1 to area 3, the price of an outgoing call is CZK 69/min., i.e. based on the price for area 3). The connection time is charged per minute. Received MMS are free of charge, only the information from the T-Mobile Info service is charged based on the price list of this service. The division into individual areas is listed at the beginning of the Roaming Services chapter. For billing purposes, the amount of data transmitted is rounded up to the next multiple of the billing unit. This process takes place upon the termination of the connection, after each hour of duration of a single connection, and after each transmission of 1 MB during a single connection. Note on roaming: In the border areas of the Czech Republic, the phone may look up a foreign network due to the signal overlap of foreign GSM networks, and your calls thus might be made via such foreign GSM network. This also applies to incoming calls, SMS, MMS and data. Therefore, please pay attention to the GSM network through which you are making your call in such areas. Calls to numbers other than subscriber numbers (such as audiotext services or coloured lines) are subject to a special charge. The roaming partner determines the call price for these services and TMCZ only transfers to the Customer the price that it is informed of and charged by the roaming partner. Prior to making a call, contact T-Mobile's Customer Centre for more information.

Roaming services can be billed only after we receive information from the respective roaming partner. Therefore, roaming traffic may be included in Statements of Services relating to a period later than that in which the service was used.

In some countries, T-Mobile does not have a roaming partner, or the roaming partner only provides voice services without data. Up-to-date information on prices and use of services in specific destinations is available at www.t-mobile.cz.

One-off increase of the data limit by 1 GB	123.14 (149.–)
One-off increase of the data limit by 2.5 GB	205.79 (249.–)

One-off increase of the data limit by 8 GB	453.72 (549.–)
One-off increase of the data limit by 10 GB	495.04 (599.–)

A one-time increase in the data limit is valid for 30 days from the date of activation. If the Subscriber does not use the increased data limit in full, this one-time increase in the data limit always ends at 23:59 on the last day of its validity. A one-time increase in the data limit applies to tariffs containing mobile data (including the package), with the exception of Mobile internet for one day, Twist Online, M2M tariffs and services (Pevný) internet bez drátu and Internet bez drátu.

The Subscriber will be informed about the achievement of 80% and 100% of the total data limit via SMS and / or e-mail (according to the Subscriber's settings).

SHARED VIRTUAL NETWORK

The Contracting Partner's Virtual Network ("VN") can be extended, upon the fulfilment of these conditions, to include the Authorized Persons specified in the Frame Contract and T-Mobile Program Members. The Authorized Persons and T-Mobile Program Members to be included in the Contracting Partner's VN shall not be required to meet the condition of the minimum number of 10 validly concluded Subscriber Contracts. The shared VN shall be administered by a single person – the VN administrator who shall be defined/changed exclusively by the Contracting Partner using the Definition and Change of the Empowered Person form.

The VN administrator must be from the Contracting Partner's company. TMCZ shall not be obliged to accept any requests concerning the shared VN if submitted by another person. The Contracting Partner shall be responsible for ensuring that the Authorized Persons and T-Mobile Program Members are provided with the information related to the shared VN and concerning the price conditions, benefits, set-up changes, administrator's identity, etc. The payments for all charged-for services provided within the shared VN that relate to particular Subscriber Contracts, for example the activation of the VN service and monthly fees for the use of the VN, shall always be charged on the respective Subscriber Contract.

Notes

This service price list contains only those services that T-Mobile offers actively. Where a subscriber is using a service that is no longer in the current offering, the prices of such services are listed in the T-Mobile Archive Price List available at www.t-mobile.cz.

The price list of tariffs and services for key T-Mobile customers (hereinafter referred to as the "Price List") is valid for all Subscriber Agreements falling under the Framework Agreement regime. The validity and duration of the Participant Agreement is based on the provisions of the specific Framework Agreement and subsequently also the Service Order. Termination of the Framework Agreement does not affect the validity and effectiveness of the contractual relationships arising from the Participant Agreements. Furthermore, their regime will be governed by the current setting of the Subscriber Agreement without the discounts agreed in the Framework Agreement, unless the Subscriber and the Operator agree otherwise.

Credit in credit tariff plans is equal to the monthly fee; the HIT variant of the credit tariff plans offers an extra 20% of monthly credit to customers. In other tariff plans that include credit, its amount is specified in the price list for the respective tariff plan. If a subscriber has been using such tariff plan only during a certain part of the billing period, the monthly fee and credit will be proportionately adjusted depending on the number of days on which the customer has been using the tariff plan. Credit serves exclusively for the payment of prices for voice phone calls, SMS and MMS to all Czech networks according to the Price List of Services. Credit cannot be used for calls, SMS and MMS charged at special rates according to the Price List of Services, especially for premium-rate services, unless it is stated otherwise in the terms and conditions of the respective tariff plan. Unused credit is rolled over in accordance with the terms and conditions of the individual tariff plans. Bonus credit and credit included in bundles is not rolled over unless it is stated otherwise.

Calls and SMS to telephone numbers of virtual operators which are operated in the T-Mobile network and to telephone numbers operated in the T-Mobile network under brand names other than T-Mobile (e.g. MOBIL.CZ) are not deemed traffic to the T-Mobile network (on-net traffic) and are charged as calls and SMS outside of the T-Mobile network (off-net calls and SMS). As at 1 June 2013, the following ranges of numbers in the network operated by T-Mobile are reserved for use by virtual operators or for being offered under brand names other than T-Mobile:

730 30x xxx/ 730 33x xxx/ 730 35x xxx/ 730 41x xxx/ 730 42x xxx/ 730 43x xxx/ 730 6xx xxx/ 730 73x xxx/ 735 0xx xxx/ 770 77x xxx/ 771 77x xxx/ 772 72x xxx/ 772 73x xxx/ 772 77x xxx/ 778 80x xxx/ 797 97x xxx/ 797 99x xxx/ 799 50x xxx/ 799 51x xxx/ 799 79x xxx/ 799 99x xxx/ 703 00x xxx, 730 70x xxx, 790 83x xxx

A mobile voice plan is a tariff plan that is primarily intended for use of mobile voice services by means of a T-Mobile SIM card. Particularly M2M plans and other data plans, which are, with regard to their nature and characteristics, intended particularly for internet connection, do not constitute mobile voice plans.

Free SMS must be used during the respective billing period or, if applicable, the proportionate part of this period (see the monthly fee); they cannot be rolled over to the next period; unused free SMS expire.

Discounts on national traffic (voice, SMS, MMS, data) agreed in the Framework Agreement will apply only to operations begun in the T-Mobile Czech Republic a.s.

Free units within the packages and incentives for national traffic or free units allocated in excess of the tariff for national traffic (voice, SMS, MMS, data) are intended only for the operation commenced in the T-Mobile Czech Republic a.s. Short messaging service: One SMS contains a maximum of 160 characters. Some letters (especially those with diacritics) or symbols may take up more than one character.

Prices of phones and data handsets: The minimum price of individual products is always CZK 1, even if a combination of discount results in a decrease in the price of the product selected by the customer below CZK 1. In such case, the price of CZK 1 will be set up for the product and the remaining part of the discount will expire and cannot be claimed in any manner in the future. A Twist set contains separate products (and services) that will be handled separately in the event of a warranty claim.

SMS and MMS sent to customers: The SMS and MMS that start with * and are sent from 4603 or 4644 are commercial statements sent by T-Mobile Czech Republic a.s. To cancel their receipt please contact the T-Mobile Customer Centre on 4603 or the Customer Centre – Business on 4644 (from T-Mobile) or e-mail us to info@t-mobile.cz.

Wherever free units are mentioned in the text, this is understood to mean credit in the case of credit tariff plans. The price of the monthly fee provided free of charge is included in the price of the immediately following monthly fee charged or in the price of the standard monthly fee. The maximum length of one call made via a SIM card provided by T-Mobile Czech Republic a.s. is 120 minutes. All prices are stated in CZK.

Tariffs are mainly determined for normal active use of the Operator's Services by the Subscriber or User. SIM cards with the tariff cannot be used in devices that are used as GSM gateways, GSM modems or other technical devices that allow machine sending of SMS, MMS. The Operator is entitled to limit or completely interrupt the Subscriber's access to the Services (and possibly convert to the prepaid service) in the event that its operation is not normal or shows signs of automatically generated, machine or otherwise systematically set operation (e.g. constantly repeating sending of SMS in at regular intervals, sending mass SMS, etc.) or in the event that the SIM card is used in device that is used as GSM gateway, GSM modem or other technical devices that allow machine sending of SMS, MMS. All these actions are considered a material breach of contractual obligations on the part of the Subscriber or User. TMCZ will always appeal the Subscriber or User for the correction of the situation within an appropriate period of time in the event of breach of contractual terms.

Calls initiated before midnight on the last day of a billing period and terminated after 00.00 on the first day of the following billing period are charged as if they took place completely in the billing period in which they were initiated. I.e., the free minutes or credit allocated in the new period are not applied to these calls.

The basic prices of calls and SMS and free units for individual services do not apply to premium-rate services; these are charged at different rates according to the currently valid Price List, see chapter Other Services.

All unlimited tariff plans are subject to data limit in order to ensure equal quality and availability of the service for all of its users. After exceeding the stipulated volume of transmitted data during one billing period (in the case of prepaid cards this volume is calculated on the basis of the last 30 days), the transfer speed will be limited. The full transfer speed is restored at the beginning of the next billing period. The data limit does not apply to access via a HotSpot. For more information see www.t-mobile.cz/internet-bus

For the purposes of the obligation of the minimum purchase of services arising from the Frame Contract, amounts billed exclusive of VAT shall be applied. The items listed below shall not be applied for the purposes of fulfilment of the obligation of the minimum purchase even though they were billed in the Statement of Services by TMCZ:

- Audiotex services,
- Audiotex services – private,
- Donor SMS,

- m-payment (Aral, Coca-Cola...),
- Individual discount – compensation in the form of a discount applied to a Statement of Services, e.g. as a result of complaint handling,
- Contractual penalty unused services based on the FC under the Frame Contract for the failure to purchase the agreed volume of services,
- Contractual penalty unused services based on the FC for the failure to purchase the agreed volume of business services (with the exception of a contractual penalty charged to an Authorized Person under the Frame Contract, which will be applied to the amount billed in the next calendar quarter)
- Premium SMS,
- Third-party SMS and MMS,
- SMS Payment,
- VideoStreaming,
- Credit note,
- Debit note,
- Twist top-up via the Statement of Services,
- Credit rolled over from the previous Statement of Services.

Payments for system solutions services (e.g. ICT solutions etc.), services provided under Company solution and/or under the Contract for the Set-Up and Provision of T-Mobile Company solution, unless agreed otherwise in writing.

The term contracts in this Price List means Subscriber Contracts, unless it is stated otherwise.

The VAT rate in this Price List is understood to be equal to 21%. The customer will be informed about any specific change in the VAT rate at www.t-mobile.cz/zmenadph.

The terms and conditions of individual services can be found on www.t-mobile.cz.

In the case of services with an unlimited number of free units, the Subscriber must not use these units for a conduct that is in conflict with the legal regulations in force and/or the General Terms and Conditions of T-Mobile Czech Republic, a.s. (especially in conflict with the provisions 3.1.8, 3.2.1, 3.2.2, 3.2.6 and/or 3.2.7) or in connection with telemarketing, in the GSM gateway or SMS gateway (unless this has been agreed in the Frame Contract). For each breach of this obligation, T-Mobile Czech Republic, a.s. is entitled to charge to the Subscriber a contractual penalty in the amount of CZK 100,000 (for each SIM card) for each billing period in which such breach occurred. This shall not affect the right of T-Mobile Czech Republic, a.s. to proceed in accordance with Article 7 of the General Terms and Conditions of T-Mobile Czech Republic, a.s.

The T-Mobile network is understood as the mobile electronic communications network operated by T-Mobile Czech Republic a.s. in the territory of the Czech Republic, unless explicitly stated otherwise.

IPv4/IPv6 (dual-stack) for mobile data: As part of the provision of mobile data services, the Subscriber is assigned a dynamically private IPv4 address, which is translated into a public shared address via CGNAT when communicating to the Internet, as well as a contiguous block of public dynamic IPv6 addresses in the /64 prefix format, in dual-stack mode. This mode allows the Subscriber's terminal device to use IPv4 and IPv6 protocols simultaneously.

Annex 1

Guaranteed activation period, guaranteed quality and guaranteed availability of mobile voice and mobile and fixed-line data services

1. Guaranteed activation period, guaranteed quality and guaranteed availability of mobile voice services:

1.1. Guaranteed period of service activation

In the case of sales at a Brand Shop or at a shop belonging to the Operator's business partner, the operator shall activate for the Subscriber the chosen service with 72 hours from the signing of the Subscriber Contract; in the case of other forms of sale (e.g. via the eShop, Customer Centre, outside of usual business premises), activation shall be carried out within ten calendar days.

The Operator guarantees the activation period only if the Subscriber actively cooperates (e.g. accepts cash-on-delivery dispatch).

In the event of porting telephone numbers or services from a different provider, the period shall be extended by the amount of time required for such porting.

1.2. Guaranteed service quality

The Operator undertakes to provide Subscribers with the service in the highest possible quality. The achieved quality of the provided service depends on numerous factors, including general factors over which neither the Operator nor the Subscriber has any influence, as well as factors that the Subscriber can directly influence. Factors influencing service quality:

- utilised technology,
- level of signal coverage (the level of outdoor coverage of the population is shown on the orientational map at www.t-mobile.cz),
- the device that the Subscriber/User uses, performance of the transmitter via which the Subscriber/User uses the service,
- weather,
- vegetation,
- artificial horizons,
- disruption of signal by buildings under construction,
- natural disasters,
- the character of the building in which the Subscriber/User uses the service,
- new construction,
- position of the terminal device,
- frequency band,
- signal distribution path,
- random concentration of Users.

1.3. Guaranteed service availability

On a site in the Czech Republic that is currently covered, the Operator guarantees to Subscribers/Users an average monthly call setup success rate of 98%.

2. Guaranteed activation period, guaranteed quality and guaranteed availability of mobile data services:

2.1. Guaranteed period of service activation

In the case of sales at a Brand Shop or at a shop belonging to the Operator's business partner, the operator shall activate for the Subscriber the chosen service with 72 hours from the signing of the Subscriber Contract; in the case of other forms of sale (e.g. via the eShop, Customer Centre, outside of usual business premises, activation shall be carried out within ten calendar days.

The Operator guarantees the activation period only if the Subscriber actively cooperates (e.g. immediately accepts cash-on-delivery dispatch).

In the event of porting telephone numbers or services from a different provider, the period shall be extended by the amount of time required for such porting.

2.2. Guaranteed service quality

The Operator undertakes to provide Subscribers with the service in the highest possible quality.

The highest possible speed (maximum possible speed) is set forth in the Pricelist of Services for individual tariffs and services. The achieved speed depends on the type of technology that is used for connection. If the maximum speed value indicated for a given service is lower than the value of the advertised speed shown in the table below for individual technologies, then the maximum speed value for that service is equal to the value of the estimated maximum speed and advertised speed for the given individual technology.

TECHNOLOGY	ESTIMATED MAXIMUM/ADVERTISED SPEED
	Data download	Data upload
2G	0.2 Mb/s	0.1 Mb/s
LTE	300 Mb/s	50 Mb/s
5G	500 Mb/s	80 Mb/s

Internet bez drátu

TECHNOLOGY	ESTIMATED MAXIMUM/ADVERTISED SPEED
	Data download	Data upload
2G	0.2 Mb/s	0.1 Mb/s
LTE	100 Mb/s	25 Mb/s

Pursuant to the business terms and conditions, the (Fixed-line) Wireless Internet service can be used only with the 3G and LTE technologies. If, however, the Subscriber is able to use the service with 2G technology in spite of this restriction, the Operator guarantees the speed set forth in the table.

The achievable speed of the provided service depends on numerous factors, including general factors over which neither the Operator nor the Subscriber has any influence, as well as factors that the Subscriber can directly influence. Factors influencing service quality include, in particular:

- utilised technology,
- level of signal coverage (the level of outdoor coverage of the population is shown on the orientational map at www.t-mobile.cz),
- selected tariff or service (the achieved speed and data limit are shown in the Pricelist of Services at www.t-mobile.cz),
- device that the Subscriber/User uses for connection,
- performance of the transmitter via which the Subscriber/User uses the service,
- weather,
- vegetation,
- artificial horizons,
- disruption by buildings under construction,
- natural disasters,
- the character of the building in which the Subscriber/User uses the service,
- new construction,
- position of the terminal device,
- frequency band,
- signal distribution path,
- random concentration of Users/devices,
- sharing of capacity through concurrent connection of multiple terminal devices,
- in the case of roaming services, intervention on the part of the roaming partner via which the Subscriber uses the services abroad.

In the event of successful connection of the Subscriber/User, the Operator shall provide to the Subscriber/User a minimum guaranteed speed of 64 kb/s for downloading data and 64 kb/s for uploading data, with respect to the above-mentioned uninfluenceable factors.

A major persistent deviation from the advertised download or upload speed is considered to be such a deviation that creates a continuous decline in the performance of the internet-access service, i.e. a decline in the actually achieved speed corresponding to the measurement of the specified TCP throughput measurement below 25% of the value of the advertised speed at an interval longer than 40 minutes during the measuring process conducted by the Office in a time period of 60 minutes.

A major recurring deviation from the advertised download or upload speed is considered to be such a deviation in the case of which at least five decreases occur in the actually achieved speed corresponding to the measurement of the specified TCP throughput below 25% of the value of the advertised speed at an interval longer than or equal to two minutes in a time period of 60 minutes during the measuring process conducted by the Office.

If a data limit is assigned to the tariff or bundle used by the Subscriber, data transmitted in both directions are counted in transmitted data, where the volume of transmitted data is measured on the transport layer.

In the case of concurrent use of services other than internet-access services, a reduction in the guaranteed quality of the mobile data service may occur. The total capacity for the use of mobile data can be influenced by the given Subscriber's simultaneous use of voice calls in LTE; a maximum of 100 kb/s for downloading and 100 kb/s for uploading data will be used for every such call, where such value has a minimal impact on the Subscriber's internet-access service.

3. Guaranteed activation period, guaranteed quality and guaranteed availability of the fixed-line data service

3.1. Guaranteed period of service activation

The Operator shall activate the chosen service for the Subscriber within 60 days from the date of conclusion of the Subscriber Contract unless expressly stated otherwise in a particular case (e.g. in the business terms and conditions of the particular service/particular tariff, etc.). The Operator guarantees the activation period only if the Subscriber actively cooperates (e.g. allows installation of the DSL/Fibre-optic Internet terminal point, accepts cash-on-delivery dispatch)

3.2. Guaranteed speed:

The Operator undertakes to provide the service to Subscribers in the highest possible quality.

The highest possible speed (maximum possible speed) is set forth in the Pricelist of Services for individual tariffs and services. The achieved speeds depend on the type of technology used for connection.

However, the achievable speed of the provided service depends on numerous factors including common factors that cannot be influenced by either the Operator or the Subscriber, as well as factors that the Subscriber can directly influence and as a result of which the current effective connection speed is generally lower than the maximum. Factors that limit the connection speed are, in particular:

- the chosen tariff or service (in the Pricelist of Services at www.t-mobile.cz),
- the quality and length of the access line,
- the quality and length of the internal cabling within the Subscriber's building,
- the utilised type of the User's connected terminal telecommunications device,
- sharing of the access network's capacity by multiple Users up to the maximum ratio set by the Operator (so-called aggregation),
- sharing of access-line capacity, e.g. simultaneous connection of multiple computers or active operation of one service using the available connection speed on the User's side,
- overhead of the upper transmission layers,
- network factors beyond the Operator's influence,
- connection other than via a LAN port with the end-device cable.

The maximum available speed on the physical layer (according to the ISO/OSI reference model) is determined by the parameters of the ordered product and the carrier communication technology – e.g. ADSL, VDSL. However, for technologies operated on a metallic network, it is also influenced (limited) by the transmission parameters of the particular subscriber line between the active network device (DSLAM) and the terminal device on the customer's side. The main parameters that influence the available transmission speed include distance, cross-section of the core of the utilised metallic pair (both preceding parameters have an influence on the attenuation of the lines), design and technical condition of cable sections and connections thereof, concurrence with other services (the preceding parameters have an influence on undesirable interference), etc. Furthermore, some sections of the subscriber line are not owned by the infrastructure provider, which makes it significantly more difficult to modify such a section – this typically involves internal wiring in buildings and apartments.

A major persistent deviation from the ordinarily available download or upload speed is considered to be such a deviation that creates a continuous decline in the performance of the internet-access service, i.e. a decline in the actually achieved speed corresponding to the measurement of the specified TCP throughput below the defined value of the ordinarily available speed at an interval longer than 70 minutes.

A major recurring deviation from the ordinarily available download or upload speed is considered to be such a deviation in the case of which at least three decreases occur in the actually achieved speed corresponding to the measurement of the specified TCP throughput below the defined value of the ordinarily available speed at an interval longer than or equal to 3.5 minutes in a time period of 90 minutes.

In the case of using services other than internet-access services, a reduction of the guaranteed quality of the fixed-line data service may occur.

4. Guaranteed activation period, guaranteed quality and guaranteed availability of the fixed-line data service provided within the mobile network:

4.1. Guaranteed period of service activation

The Operator shall activate the chosen service for the Subscriber within 60 days from the signing of the Subscriber Contract unless expressly stated otherwise in a particular case. The Operator guarantees the activation period only if the Subscriber actively cooperates (e.g. allows installation of a modem).

4.2. Guaranteed service quality

The operator undertakes to provide the service to Subscribers in the highest possible quality.

Examples of data-limit usage:

Data limit of 500 MB to 1 GB

This volume of data usually suffices for reading articles, checking the weather, e-mails. The Subscriber can, for example, check public-transport schedules and see what is new on social networks.

Data limit of 3 GB to 5 GB

This volume of data usually suffices for sharing photographs on social networks and viewing videos on YouTube. At the same time, it can be used for e-mails and for reading the most important articles on the internet.

Data limit of 10 GB or more

This volume of data usually suffices for downloading music, frequent viewing of videos, online games and, of course, for reading articles, checking the weather, e-mails. A hotspot can occasionally be set up for sharing data from a mobile telephone to a notebook, for example.

T-Mobile open internet – rules for provision of the Internet Access service and measures pertaining to provision of services

In the provision of Internet Access services, T-Mobile Czech Republic a.s. enables:

- the possibility of receiving and sending information/data according to the end User's choice,
- the possibility of using services and applications according to the end User's choice,
- the possibility of installing one's own hardware and software if such does not damage the network,
- provision of contractually agreed service quality in compliance with the contractually agreed conditions.

In the case of the Internet Access service, T-Mobile does not distinguish between individual data flows for the purpose of blocking, slowing, changing, restricting, interrupting, discriminating or reducing the quality of the handling of such data flows, when it is unnecessary to do so. If it is necessary, T-Mobile applies the following measures in the provision of services:

1. (Domain Name Service). With respect to its technological possibilities, T-Mobile can prioritise with its network emergency calls and voice connection for crisis-communication entities in the event of danger and when declaring a state of emergency. Furthermore, T-Mobile fulfils the obligations stipulated by laws and administrative and judicial rulings concerning the restriction of provided services, e.g. in accordance with Act No. 186/2016 Coll., on Gambling, as amended, the Operator shall ensure the blocking of specified domain names at the Domain Name Service (DNS) level.
2. For the purpose of maintaining the integrity and security of the T-Mobile network, services provided through such network and end users' terminal devices, T-Mobile may implement temporary measures consisting in the blocking of IP addresses and their ranges, blocking of network ports, protocols and domain names, and updating of firmware and configuration management of the terminal devices that T-Mobile administrates, if such are a known source or target of attacks or pose a threat to the security and integrity of the network.

3. For the purpose of preventing overloading of the network or mitigation of the effects of exceptional overloading of the network, the data flows of all end Users may be temporarily restricted across the board. However, the measure pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be applied equally to all categories of data traffic of all end Users for the purpose of appropriate reduction of the total data flow in the network.

The measures set forth above shall be applied for the absolutely necessary period of time and only to the extent necessary for fulfilling the intended purpose and may differ for the provision of the service – in some case, the end User may not even notice the measures, though in certain cases temporary unavailability of the service may occur. T-Mobile prefers the application of such intensity of measures that has the least impact on the customer experience.

Remedies
