SOHO and SME department or with an operator of the contact centre of an external company that is explicitly (contractually) authorized by the Provider to do this. The Provider always determines the way (form) of concluding a specific agreement.

4.1.3 to limit the provision of services for the necessary period due to serious technical reasons described later herein;

4.1.4 to change the Subscriber line number due to urgent technical reasons and without the Subscriber's consent, if it is necessary for the proper provision of the service, whereas the Subscriber will be informed of this change in advance, that technical reason being a decision by the relevant administrative body on a change of number or numbering plan in accordance with Act 127/2005 Coll., or if it is stipulated in another legal regulation; and

4.1.5 to not accept a change in the agreement requested by the Subscriber, if carrying out such a change is not technically possible or the Subscriber attempts to use such a change to circumvent some provisions of the agreement, namely if such requested change circumvented the meaning of the provision in clause 16.2.3 of the General Terms and Conditions concerning the payment of one-off cancellation in the case of non-observance of the minimum period of service use by the Subscriber.

4.1.6 to not establish a service or conduct a change in a service requested by the Subscriber in cases in which the Subscriber intentionally gave incorrect personal or identification data or makes/made regular late payments or regularly does not/did not pay the charged amount for services (see point 16.4.5 for the meaning of regular late payment or regular non-payment) or repeatedly breaches/breached the contractual terms and conditions.

4.2 The Provider undertakes:

4.2.1 to provide to the Subscriber the service or change the service in accordance with the conditions and times stipulated in the agreement and to provide this service uninterrupted under the terms and conditions and for the prices stipulated by the agreement, with the exception of instances described below;

Appropriate manners of notifying of changes in contractual terms and conditions pursuant to this clause are considered the manners given in the preceding clause 4.2.3 of the General Terms and Conditions. Contracting parties agree that any and all changed documents, or modified contractual terms and conditions when there are changed parts of the contractual terms and conditions (of the agreement) in the sense of the above mentioned and when the Subscriber does not exercise his right to cancel the agreement or the individual service without penalty pursuant to 16.2.1 of the General Terms and Conditions, acquire validity on the date stated in them, or – as the case might be – on the date set forth in the pertinent notification of the Subscriber, regardless of any necessary further acceptance by the Subscriber. The right to terminate the agreement pursuant to this provision, respectively to 16.2.1 of the General Terms and Conditions, does not arise in the event that the changes of the contractual terms and conditions (of agreement) are made upon a change of a legal regulation or upon a decision of the Czech Telecommunication Office in compliance with Act 127/2005 Coll.

4.2.5 Contracting parties agree that any and all contractual documents changed, or modified contractual terms and conditions when their changes do not cause modification of the contractual terms and conditions set forth at the provisions of section 63, par. 1 of the Act 127/2005 Coll., explicitly stated in the provision of section 63, par. 6 of the Act 127/2005 Coll., become valid on the date stated therein, or – as the case might be – on the date set forth at the pertinent notification of the Subscriber, regardless of any necessary acceptance by the Subscriber.

4.2.6 to implement an accepted change of the agreement requested by the Subscriber, bilaterally confirmed in the relevant annex to the agreement or in the Service specification within the stipulated period;

4.2.7 to maintain its electronic communication equipment and the telecommunication infrastructure of its network in such a technical and operating state as to allow the service to be provided in accordance with the terms, conditions and parameters described in the agreement and in the relevant regulations;

4.2.8 to correct failures or defects that occur in its electronic communication equipment and its public communication network in accordance with Article 8. The Provider is not liable for failures or defects that occur outside of its electronic communication equipment and public communication network;

4.2.9 to inform the Subscriber of all limitations, interruptions, changes or irregularities in the service provision that the Provider knows of sufficiently in advance;

4.2.10 to inform the Subscriber of a change in the Subscriber's number pursuant to 4.1.4 without any unreasonable delay, but no later than 2 (two) months before carrying out this change, unless otherwise stipulated in the decision of the relevant administrative body, or unless otherwise stipulated by law.

- 5.2.22 not to disrupt for the duration of the agreement or service the subscription by which the Subscriber is provided by another provider a publicly available telephone service necessary for the provision of a specific service by the Provider; not to alter for the duration of the agreement or service without the Provider's consent the terms and conditions of subscription for which the Subscriber is provided by the Provider a publicly available telephone service that is necessary for the service's provision by the Provider; the Provider's consent with a change in the terms and conditions of subscription can be provided to the Subscriber in the event that it is demonstrably proven to the Provider that services provided by the Provider pursuant to the agreement can continue to be, following such a change in the terms and conditions of subscription, provided to the Subscriber by the provider for the same agreed parameters (i.e. there does not occur a cancellation of the service or change in the service's parameters).
- 5.2.23 to provide the Provider with true information that is requisite for the service provisioning and providing, and is rightfully requested by the Provider, especially the information concerning an identification of the Subscriber itself and Subscriber's site where the pertinent service will be used by the Subscriber, while concluding the agreement/Service specification (e.g. prior to the service provisioning).
- 5.2.24 to use the specific service solely at the pertinent Subscriber's site stipulated at the pertinent agreement/Service specification for the pertinent service.
6. Extent and territorial limitations of provided service
- 6.1 The extent of the service provided, including the essential specifications and service parameters, is stated in the agreement, namely in the service Description or Service specification. An individual service is established and provided on the basis of the relevant individual Service specification.
- 6.2 The service is provided on the territory of the Czech Republic.
7. Prices and payment terms
- 7.1 The prices for provided services and details concerning the means of charging and payment are given in the relevant agreement and/or in the Services Price List designated in the agreement or in the services Specification. Prices for the provided publicly available telephone service and details concerning the manner in which they are charged and paid, or other terms and conditions concerning the establishing and provision of publicly available telephone services are stipulated in the relevant agreement and/or in the Price List of the relevant publicly available telephone service and in particular in the selected price programme for the publicly available telephone service specified in the agreement or Service specifications. Updated Services Price List (price programmes) is available to the Subscriber at the Provider's place of business or at the Authorised partners. The Provider may require payment of a deposit for the provision of service or to ensure adequate security in relation to existing accounts receivable due from the Subscriber.
- 7.2 The Provider shall issue to the Subscriber upon the completion of one (1) monthly billing period an invoice statement, in accordance with the general measures of the Czech Telecommunications Office OOP/3 as amended, for the payment for services provided in the given billing period and shall deliver the invoice to the Subscriber within fifteen (15) calendar days after the end of the billing period. This invoice shall include the necessary elements of a tax and accounting document.
- 7.3 The payment due date of the invoice is 14 (fourteen) calendar days from the issue date, unless otherwise agreed by the Provider and Subscriber. If the Subscriber agrees with the Provider that the payments of the charged amounts for the services provided will be executed by the Provider via direct debits to the Subscriber's bank account (by so-called inkaso means), then the Subscriber is obliged to submit to the Provider confirmed consent for inkaso payment from the Subscriber's bank account from the relevant monetary institution. Otherwise, such an agreement is invalid and the Subscriber is obliged to pay the charged amounts by another method. In the event that the Subscriber's inkaso payment is not made due to reasons on the part of the Subscriber (e.g. insufficient funds in the Subscriber's account, insufficient limit for inkaso payment of the relevant amount, non-existence of an inkaso order to the monetary institution from the Subscriber, inaccurate data concerning the inkaso payment from the Subscriber's account provided to the Provider, etc.), the Subscriber is obliged to pay the charged amounts in a different manner before the invoice's payment due date, otherwise the Subscriber is in default of payment. Payment is considered made on the day that the transfer of the owed amount reaches the Provider's account. If the Subscriber does not pay the billed amount by the payment due date of the relevant bill, the Subscriber is in default of payment of the amount charged for the provided services. On payment of the charged services via bank transfer the Subscriber undertakes to always state the invoice – tax document number as the variable symbol.
- 7.4 The Subscriber is obliged to pay the billed amount even if a user other than the Subscriber used the service. If unauthorised use of a service by other Users occurs, the Subscriber is obliged to pay the billed amounts that are charged until such time as the Provider limits the active use of the service on the basis of written notification from the Subscriber as to the service's misuse. The Provider shall limit the active use of a service without any unreasonable delay, but no later than 24 (twenty-four) hours after the delivery of this notification.
- 7.5 The Subscriber acknowledges that to determine the sums charged for operation of the provided services, data measured and stated by the relevant Provider's equipment are decisive, unless the Provider finds any defect affecting the stated data.
- 7.6 The Provider is entitled to claim overdue payments together with the increase of the overdue payments by such claim-related costs (e.g. costs in connection with reminders) which also applies to the cases when the provider is unable to duly identify the payment transacted owing to the reasons on the subscriber's side (e.g. the variable symbol stated incorrectly or not at all). If the Subscriber does not pay the billed amount by the payment due date of the relevant invoice, the Subscriber is in default of payment of the amount billed for the provided services, or in default with the payment of other monetary obligations pursuant to the agreement. If the Subscriber gives notice of cancellation pursuant to this clause that the notice period will end earlier than the minimum period of service use stipulated pursuant to 16.1 or earlier than agreed definite period, then the Provider has the right to charge the Subscriber, for the period between the end of the notice period and the expiration of the stipulated minimum period of service use or of agreed definite period, a the amount which is determined in the following manner:

a) 20% of the aggregate sum of recurring monthly costs and minimum usage-based costs (minimum monthly payment) for the publicly available telephone service;

b) 20% of the aggregate sum of recurring monthly costs (minimum monthly payment) for other publicly available electronic communications services

c) the costs relating to the telecommunication equipment which has been provided to the Subscriber under special advantageous terms.

If a recurring monthly cost and/or minimum usage-based cost (minimum monthly payment) is charged in the amount of CZK 0 or is not charged at all, then the recurring monthly cost and/or minimum usage-based fee (minimum monthly payment) are set by the Services Price List, valid to the day when the agreement/Service specification is terminated, is used for determining the amount pursuant to this clause.

16.3 Cancellation of the agreement does not affect the Subscriber's obligations to pay the Provider all amounts due, nor does it affect the bilateral liability for any possible legal injury.

16.4 The Provider may withdraw from the agreement or from an individual service with immediate effect, i.e. the day of delivery of written notice to the Subscriber:

16.4.1 in the event of repeated and/or serious non-compliance with the contractual terms and conditions on the part of the Subscriber;

16.4.2 if there exists well-founded suspicion that the Subscriber is misusing the public communication network or using the service in contradiction with the generally binding laws or in contradiction with good morals, including but not limited to the following:

a) the Subscriber intentionally or out of negligence supports or facilitates any illegal activities, or is linked to them;

b) communication that violates the rights to personal protection, disseminates slander, disseminates computer viruses, or violates ownership rights or copyrights;

General Terms and Conditions for the Provision of Publicly Available Electronic Communications service

- c) the Subscriber violates the security of the system or network in an attempt to gain unauthorised access;
 - d) the Subscriber uses data, systems and networks in an unauthorised manner or tests the vulnerability of systems or networks in an unauthorised manner;
 - e) the Subscriber violates security and authorisation procedures without an explicit consent of the owner of the system or network;
 - f) the Subscriber interferes in services provided to other users, host systems or networks – e.g. in the form of wilfully overloading the system (mail bombing) or other interference with malicious intent;
 - g) the Subscriber disseminates unrequited e-mail and contributes to discussion groups in contradiction with the rules of the discussion group, or otherwise violates the principles of civil coexistence;
 - h) the Subscriber makes malicious or harassing calls to other users or Subscribers, including to users and Subscribers of other Providers of a public telephone service;
 - i) the Subscriber make malicious or harassing calls to emergency line numbers;
- 16.4.3 in the event that the Subscriber does not use the given service within one (1) month from the provisioning of such service by the Provider;
- 16.4.4 in the event that the Subscriber had its subscription cancelled or changed the terms and conditions of subscription of a publicly available telephone service that is necessary for the provision of the service without the Provider's consent (this also applies for cases in which the cancellation of or change in the subscriber's terms and conditions occurs due to another provider of the relevant publicly available telephone service, e.g. the termination of a subscriber agreement due to the non-performance of contractual terms and conditions by the subscriber).
- 16.4.5 in the event that the Subscriber regularly is in default with payment or regularly fails to pay the price for services, whereas for the purposes of this provision the regularly default with payment means payment of at least two (2) successive billing of the price following the payment due date and regular non-payment is for the purposes of this provision understood as the existence of at least three (3) unpaid bills for services.
- 16.4.6 If termination of the agreement by the Provider occurs pursuant to 16.4.1, 16.4.2, 16.4.3, 16.4.4 or 16.4.5 the Provider has the right to charge the Subscriber and the Subscriber is obliged to pay the Provider the amount according to clause 16.2.3.
- 16.5 The Provider may terminate the agreement concluded for an indefinite period or definite period or an individual service (Service specifications) for any reason or without stating a reason; the notice period is three (3) months and begins with the first day of the month following the delivery of the notice to the Subscriber.
- 16.6 The Provider may terminate the agreement or an individual service with immediate effect, i.e. the day of delivery of written notice to the Subscriber in case that:
- 16.6.1 upon researching the feasibility of establishing a service (carrying out a change) or during the service establishment itself (carrying out a change) it determines that the service in question cannot be provided or a change cannot be carried out due to technical reasons;
- 16.6.2 in providing a service, conducting a change in the service or correcting failures, the Subscriber does not provide sufficient co-operation to the Provider in accordance with the agreement.
- 16.6.3 if it consists of cases stipulated in 4.1.6, in which the Provider is not obliged to establish or change a service as requested by the Subscriber;
- 16.6.4 In case of terminating the agreement or individual service pursuant to 16.6.2, the Provider has the right to charge the Subscriber and the Subscriber is obliged to pay the amount, which is governed by clause 16.2.3.
- 16.7 If the Subscriber is an individual who, in concluding and fulfilling the agreement, does not act within the scope of its business activities, and if a) the agreement or individual service is concluded by an Authorised partner or the Provider outside its normal business premises, the Subscriber is entitled to withdraw in writing from the agreement or individual service within fourteen (14) days from the day of the agreement's conclusion, regardless of whether the service was established or not, or within one (1) month from the day of the agreement's conclusion, if the service had not been established yet. The Subscriber is not entitled to withdraw from the agreement or individual service pursuant to the previous sentence if the Subscriber explicitly arranged a visit of the authorised partner or Provider to conclude an agreement or individual service. b) an agreement or individual service concluded via long-distance communication, the Subscriber is entitled to withdraw from the agreement or from individual services up to the moment the relevant (first) service is established. The Subscriber is obliged to deliver to the Provider's address notice in writing of withdrawal from the agreement or individual service pursuant to this clause, letter a) by the deadlines given herein; the subscriber is obliged to give notification of withdrawal from the agreement or services pursuant to this clause letter b) at the Provider's contact centre by the deadlines given herein.
- 16.8 In case of providing transfer of the Subscriber's telephone number (number portability) from the Provider, in the case of introducing another carrier's preselection, in the case of introducing the WRL service at another operator, or in the case that the Subscriber cancels the operator preselection service and/or WLR in favor of the Provider, or cancels subscription or makes, without the Provider's approval, a change in the terms and conditions of subscription of a publicly available telephone service that is necessary for the provision of a service by the Provider (this also applies for cases in which there occurs the cancellation or change in the subscription of another provider or the relevant publicly available telephone service, e.g. the termination of a subscription agreement due to the non-performance of contractual terms and conditions by the subscriber), the relevant individual services that cannot be provided to the Subscriber without a ported telephone number or owing to the set carrier preselection or the WLR service, or due to cancellation of or change in the terms and conditions of the subscription, will be terminated on the day on which a new receiving Provider of publicly available electronic communications service has delivered to the Provider a notification of activation of the transferred telephone number with such a Provider or with the commencement of the carrier preselection service or the WLR service pursuant to the Provider's records, or the day in which the Provider ascertains that it is not capable of providing services pursuant to the agreed parameters in the agreement, or Service specifications, due to the fact that the subscription was cancelled or a change occurred, without the Provider's consent, in the terms and conditions of the publicly available telephone service of another provider that is necessary for the provision of a service by the Provider. Termination of the individual service pursuant to the previous sentence is understood for the purposes of the agreement as the termination of such a service through a cancellation by the Subscriber pursuant to clause 16.2.3. The Provider is thus entitled to charge the Subscriber the amount according to the clause 16.2.3. In the event that, due to reasons given herein, there occurs a termination of the agreement and/or service (Service specifications) concluded for a definite period before the agreed period elapses, regardless of whether if there is or is not an agreed minimum period of service use, or concluded for indefinite period before elapsing agreed minimum period of service use, the Provider is entitled to charge the Subscriber and the Subscriber is obliged to pay the amount according to 16.2.3.

16.9 The agreement or an individual service can also be terminated by mutual consent of the contracting parties. Also in case of agreement or service termination by mutual consent of the contracting parties the Provider is entitled to charge the Subscriber and the Subscriber is obliged to pay the amount according to 16.2.3 if such termination is before the expiration of definite period or stipulated minimum period of service use.

16.10 The agreement will be terminated at such time that the provision of the last individual service is discontinued.

16.11 Either the Provider or the Subscriber is entitled to withdraw from the agreement with immediate effect, i.e. on the day of a delivery of written notification on withdrawal to the other Party, if the other Party ceases to be an entity fully competent to carry out legal acts, its authorization to conduct business related to the subject of the agreement is no longer valid, or the other Party goes into liquidation, insolvency proceeding with this Party has already been commenced and has still been in progress, motion for bankruptcy is rejected due to insufficient assets, or there commenced an execution of a decision (execution) through a sale of the assets, or there were breached duties within Section 122, Clause 2 of Insolvency Act during a moratorium period declared by the law. The Provider is also entitled to withdraw from the agreement with immediate effect if forced administration is imposed on the Subscriber.

16.12 On terminating the agreement or individual service through a notice of cancellation submitted by the Subscriber before the service is established and provided or a change in service has been carried out, the Subscriber is obliged to pay to the Provider the amount according to 16.2.3. The previous sentence also applies to cases of a termination of the agreement or individual services before the establishment of or change in a service for reasons given in 16.8 or cancellation of an agreement or individual services by the Provider pursuant to 16.6.2, before the establishment of or change in the service.

16.13 On termination of the agreement, the Subscriber is obliged to return to the Provider without unnecessary delay all the Provider's property. All claims and liabilities arising from the agreement shall be settled between the contracting parties no later than 45 (forty-five) calendar days from the agreement's termination.

17. Delivery of and necessary information included in the cancellation or notice of withdrawal from the agreement or individual service

17.1 The Provider shall deliver the notice by post, in person or in another agreed manner to the Subscriber's address of which the Provider was last informed. A notice submitted to the appropriate place by an official post carrier and not picked up by the Subscriber within 7 (seven) days of its submission is also considered as delivered.

17.2 The legal acts exercised through fax, electronic mail, SMS, MMS or data box are also deemed written legal acts of the Provider.

17.3 The delivery is effective even in the event that the Subscriber does not dwell at the mailing address the Subscriber stated in the agreement. This does not stand in the event that the Provider delivered a document to a mailing address the Subscriber made the Provider acquainted that such address was no longer actual.

17.4 If it is delivered through a public communication network (especially by fax, electronic mail, SMS or MMS) a document is considered delivered at the moment of confirmation of the document's delivery to the Subscriber's electronic address (e-mail), or confirmation of the successful transmission of data (fax) and if there is no such confirmation then on the date subsequent to the date of sending such document to the Subscriber's phone number or e-mail address at the latest.

17.5 If the Subscriber refuses to accept the document, the date of delivery is considered to be the day of such refusal.

17.4 Cancellation of the agreement or an individual service by the Subscriber must be done in writing, provided that any electronic (soft) form, or a delivery of the termination notice through the electronic mail, is not deemed as a written form, must be signed by the Subscriber or the Subscriber's Authorised representative and must contain adequate information so that it is clear who is submitting the cancellation and the reasons for the cancellation (such information includes in particular: company name or name and surname of Subscriber, Subscriber's registered office or permanent address (residence), company's registration number, Subscriber's personal ID number or date of birth, number of agreement or individual service to be terminated), otherwise the cancellation is invalid. That delineated in the previous sentence similarly applies for notification of withdrawal from the agreement or from an individual service by the Subscriber as well.

General Terms and Conditions for the Provision of Publicly Available Electronic Communications service

18. Liability and compensation for legal injury

18.1 The Provider is responsible only for the foreseeable legal injury that the Subscriber demonstrably incurred owing to the Provider's fault, up to the maximum amount of three hundred thousand Czech Crowns (CZK 300,000) except for cases excluding a statutory liability and cases set forth in clause 18.3 below, when the Provider shall not be obliged to compensate the Subscriber (user) for any legal injury incurred. If, however, the legal injury pursuant to this clause occurred through the Provider's intentional act or gross negligence, the Provider is obliged to pay compensation for such legal injury in the demonstrable amount.

18.2 The Provider shall first use the amount pursuant to clause 18.1, to settle any accounts receivable due from the Subscriber. If such accounts receivable do not exist or do not suffice to cover the amount designated as legal injury compensation, the Provider shall provide the Subscriber with the service free of charge in the relevant amount (or at a charge reduced by the amount of the legal injury compensation). Only in the event that legal injury compensation is to be paid after the end of the agreement's validity will this compensation be paid monetarily.

18.3 In case of non-provision of service or imperfect provision of the service pursuant to the agreement, the Provider's responsibility is limited to the obligation to promptly correct the defect and adequately lower the cost, or return the unjustified charged and paid amount (or the difference between the unjustified charged amount and actual price for the service provided). The Provider is thus not obliged to compensate Subscribers or users of a service for damage that results from the non-provision of a service or from faulty provision of a service.

18.4 The Subscriber is responsible only for the foreseeable legal injury that the Provider demonstrably incurred owing to the Subscriber's fault, or for the foreseeable legal injury caused to the Provider by a third party that the Subscriber allowed to be caused by this third party, up to the maximum amount of three hundred thousand Czech Crowns (CZK 300,000) except for cases excluding a statutory liability. If, however, the legal injury pursuant to this clause occurred through the Subscriber's intentional act or gross negligence, the Subscriber is obliged to pay compensation for such legal injury in the demonstrable amount.

18.5 The Subscriber is responsible for legal injury the Provider incurs if, despite previous notices from the Provider, it continues in activities that the Provider had indicated were a misuse of the service.

18.6 The Subscriber is fully liable to the Provider for legal injury caused by a user to whom it intentionally or from negligence allowed use of the service, if the User, despite previous notification of the Subscriber by the Provider, continues in activities that the Provider had indicated were a misuse of the service.

18.7 At such time as the Subscriber acknowledges or the Provider proves legal injury pursuant to 18.4, 18.5 or 18.6, the Subscriber shall fully pay compensation within 30 (thirty) calendar days through a bank transfer to the Provider's account.

18.8 For the purposes of Act 513/1991 Coll. definition "legal injury" used in this article or elsewhere in this document means damage.

19. Joint and final provisions

19.1 The contractual relations between the Subscriber and Provider are governed by Czech law, namely Act 127/2005 Coll., on electronic communication, as amended and Act 513/1991 Coll., Commercial Code, as amended, for the Subscribers, who has agreement validly concluded before January 1, 2014 or Act 89/2012 Coll., Civil Code, as amended, for other Subscribers.

19.2 Possible disputes between the contracting parties arising from the agreement that are not resolved amicably and whose resolution is not within the competence of the relevant administrative body in accordance with Act 127/2005 Coll. will be decided by arbitration proceedings in accordance with Act 216/1994 Coll., on Arbitration Proceedings, as amended, by the Arbitration Court of the Czech Economic Chamber and Czech Agrarian Chamber through a council of three arbitrators according to its Rules. The place of arbitration shall be Prague. The issued arbitration finding is final and enforceable. If the contracting parties do not reach an agreement on the choice of arbitrators within thirty (30) days, they will submit the dispute to the relevant court in accordance with Act 99/1963 Coll., the Code of Civil Procedure, as amended.

19.3 Legal acts delivered by post, courier, fax or e-mail are considered written in the form designated. Signatures of the Subscriber and the Provider may be replaced by an electronic approval in the Internet network, in because such method is usual with regard to the nature of the service, if it is not expressly provided otherwise herein or elsewhere in the agreement. Legal acts exercised through the Provider's web interface (portal) are deemed to be in writing providing there are met all terms and conditions set forth in the agreement for such legal acts.

19.4 In case the provisions of individual parts of the agreement are in conflict with the documents stated below, the provisions stated in the agreement successively prevail in the following order:

19.4.1 numbered annexes to the agreement in the order from the most recent to the least recent;

19.4.2 Service specifications

19.4.3 agreement;

19.4.4 Selected price programme for a publicly available telephone service;

19.4.5 Services Price List;

19.4.6 Commercial terms and conditions of Payment services;

19.4.7 service Description (SLA service Description);

19.4.8 Operating Terms and Conditions;

19.4.9 Claims Procedure;

19.4.10 General Terms and Conditions.

19.5 Invalidity of any of the agreement's provisions, due to a change in law or the decision of authorised government bodies or by a decision of the contracting parties, does not affect the validity of the agreement's other provisions. The contracting parties undertake that, if necessary, they will replace the invalid provisions with valid ones without unnecessary delay.

19.6 By signing the agreement the Subscriber acknowledges that it is acquainted with the various parts of the agreement and documents mentioned in clause 19.4 above, that it agrees with them and that it will observe the conditions given therein and binding for the provider and subscriber (user).

19.7 The General Terms and Conditions, Operating Terms and Conditions and Claims Procedure of the Provider, or additional contractual documents as the case might be, are available at all of the Provider's contact sites intended for contacts with the public and at the web site www.gts.cz or t-mobile.cz.

19.8 If not stipulated otherwise by the contractual parties the valid wording of documents set forth in Clause 19.4 in Czech shall prevail over other language variants of the said documents.

19.9 These General Terms and Conditions (the general part as well as special parts) become valid and take effect as of April 1, 2020.

General Terms and Conditions for the Provision of Publicly Available Electronic Communications service

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

(Special part of the General Terms and Conditions)

PART A – MOBILE SERVICES

Not used - Mobile Services are not provided anymore

PART B- ICT SERVICES AND ADDITIONAL SERVICES

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1 If not explicitly stipulated otherwise in this special part of the General Terms and Conditions any and all terms and conditions set forth in the general part of these General Terms and Conditions shall apply to the ICT services set forth herein. In case the provisions of this Special part are in conflict with the provisions of the General part of the General Terms and Conditions, the provisions stated in this Special part prevail over the provisions in the General part of the General Terms and Conditions.

1.2 This Special part of the General Terms and Conditions is valid for Service Specifications of ICT Services which become valid after May 31, 2013.

2. CONCLUSION, DURATION AND TERMINATION OF THE SERVICE SPECIFICATION

2.1 If not explicitly stipulated otherwise in the pertinent Service specification the Service specification is concluded for a definite term. If the Service specification is concluded for a definite term and neither of the contracting parties express its intention to terminate such Service specification upon expiring the term of the Service specification not later than 30 days prior to the expiration date of such Service specification the Service specification is automatically extended (is transferred) to an indefinite term with the option to terminate it in writing without disclosing any reason in compliance with Clauses 16.2.3 and 16.5 of General Terms and Conditions.

2.2 The Service specification comes into power on the date either of the contracting parties have signed it and becomes effective upon the ICT service provisioning, i.e. the definite term of the Service specification agreed on or the minimum period for service usage commences on the ICT service provisioning date.

2.3 The rights and duties resulting from the agreement shall be valid within a full extent even after the agreement termination owing to whatever reason for any and all Service specifications their agreed term and/or minimum period for service usage term exceeds the term of the agreement under termination (or – as the case might be – all Service specifications their term and/or minimum period of service usage term are to expire after the agreement termination). All Service specifications remain valid even after the agreement termination; the rights and obligations stipulated by the pertinent agreement remain valid even after its termination. Service specifications that remain valid even after the agreement termination will be terminated upon expiration of their terms and/or minimum period of service usage term without any further necessary legal act, especially without a necessity to deliver a notification on the Service specification termination or delivery of the pertinent Service specification termination notice if such ICT service is not terminated owing to other reasons prior to the expiration of the definite period or minimum period of service usage term (e.g. immediate termination owing to a serious breach of contractual terms and conditions). The definite term of the Service specification agreed on is extended by the period of time for which the provision of ICT services was interrupted owing to reasons on the Subscriber's side. Even though the Subscriber settles all monetary obligations during such interruption of the ICT services provision such interruption will extend the Service specification term.

2.4 The Subscriber is entitled to terminate the Service specification in writing at the moment the definite term agreed on has already expired.

3. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE CONTRACTUAL PARTIES

3.1 The Provider is authorized to provide different Subscribers with different prices, offers, quality of ICT services and level of customer care depending on their meeting objective criteria, as e.g. volume of ICT services utilized (including in connection with other services), number of agreements or Service specifications, or their term of duration. The Provider is authorized to provide a higher level of customer care against payment even to those Subscribers that do not meet the objective criteria determined.

3.2 The Provider is not liable for any damage that the Subscriber, users and/or third parties suffer owing to/in connection with non-provision (interruption) and/or faulty provision of any ICT service pursuant to the agreement and pertinent Service specification including a prospective loss of data (damage to data) the Subscriber, users and/or third parties suffer unless such damage is caused by a willful act or gross negligence of the Provider. The Provider's liability for damage that suffered the Subscriber and/or users by any other manner is governed by the relevant provisions set forth in the general part of these General Terms and Conditions.

3.3 The following clauses set forth in the general part of these General Terms and Conditions shall not be valid for the provision of ICT services: 4.2.3, 4.2.4, 4.2.5, Articles 11, 12, 13.

4. CHANGE OF CONTRACTING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

4.1 The Provider is to inform the Subscriber at least 14 calendar days in advance about amendments to the terms and conditions pertaining the ICT services, especially about amendments to the terms and conditions set forth in the General Terms and Conditions, Rules for Claims, Operating Terms and Conditions, Service Description, Services Price List in a manner the Subscriber chose for a delivery of bills, or through the electronic mail sent to the Subscriber's contact person or through a registered mail sent to the Subscriber's mailing address.

4.2 In the case of amendments to the terms and conditions pertaining to the ICT services when there are changed essential requirements of the agreement and such changes of terms and conditions lead to a substantial deterioration in the Subscriber's position so that the Subscriber is authorized to withdraw from the pertinent individual ICT service (ICT Service specification) the subject of which is a provision of ICT service without any sanction pursuant to 16.2.1 of the General Terms and Conditions in the event that the Subscriber refuses to accept such change of terms and conditions. Contracting parties agree that any and all documents changed or modified terms and conditions pertaining to ICT services when such modifications of essential requirements of the agreement indeed lead to a deterioration in the Subscriber's position but the Subscriber does not use its right to withdraw from the pertinent individual ICT service (ICT Service specification) without any sanction pursuant to 16.2.1 of the General Terms and Conditions come into power on the date set forth in therein or on the date set forth in the pertinent notification to the Subscriber regardless any other necessary further acceptance from the Subscriber's side. The right to terminate the ICT Service specification pursuant to this provision does not arise in the event that the terms and conditions (of the agreement) upon a modification of legal regulations or upon a decision of the Czech Telecommunication Office in compliance with Act 127/2005 Coll. The Subscriber is not authorized to terminate entire agreement owing to change of terms and conditions of ICT services; the Subscriber can only withdraw from the pertinent ICT Service specification.

4.3 Contracting parties agree that any and all documents changed or modified terms and conditions when there are not changed essential requirements of the agreement and when such modifications of the pertinent provisions do not lead to a deterioration in the Subscriber's position are to come into power on the date set forth in therein or on the date set forth in the pertinent notification to the Subscriber regardless any other necessary further acceptance from the Subscriber's side.

4.4 Once a year the Provider is authorized to increase unilaterally prices for ICT services provided by annual inflation expressed by an increment of the annual consumer price index for the past calendar year announced by the Czech Statistical Office. The Provider is to notify the Subscriber about that by March 31 of the pertinent calendar year at the latest. This increase cannot be used for prices for the electric power consumed which are billed to the Subscriber separately (i.e. which is not included in recurring monthly fees) for some ICT services.

4.5 Whenever once a year the Provider is authorized to increase unilaterally prices for the electric power consumed which is billed separately (i.e. it is not included in recurring monthly fees) for some ICT services in the event that the price for power will be increased by 2% and over by the power distributor the Provider has a contract for the electric power supply, and/or the average price of three largest power distribution companies on the Czech Republic market increased by 2% and over.

4.6 Whenever the Provider is authorized to increase unilaterally prices for the software licenses provided to the Subscriber in connection with ICT services in the event that the price of the software licenses will be increased to the Provider by the supplier of such software licenses.

4.7 The effectiveness of the increase in prices for ICT services and/or prices for the electric power consumed and/or prices for the software licenses is to be assessed by the Provider at its notification to the Subscriber providing that there should be period of one month minimally between the delivery of such notification to the Subscriber and effectiveness of such increase. The Provider is to inform the Subscriber about such increase of prices for the provision of ICT services and/or price for the electric power consumed and/or prices for the software licenses in a manner the Subscriber chose for a delivery of bills, or through electronic mail sent to the Subscriber's contact person, or through a registered mail sent to the Subscriber's address. The unilateral increase in prices for the provision of ICT services and/or in prices for the electric power consumed and/or in prices for the software licenses mentioned herein is not deemed an essential requirement of the agreement, or change leading to a deterioration of the Subscriber's position, hence the Subscriber is not authorized to terminate the pertinent ICT service (ICT Service specification) without a sanction pursuant to Clause 16.2.1 of General Terms and Conditions.

4.8 The Provider is authorized to change scope, terms and conditions, quality and price of ICT services or – as the case might be – terminate the provision of current ICT services owing to an inflation, introduction of new services, changes of the conditions on the electronic communications, network upgrading, development of new technologies, etc. The Provider undertakes to substitute the ICT services that are to be terminated by other similar services if it is technically and economically feasible.

5. BREACHING OF THE CONTRACTUAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

5.1 In the event that the Subscriber breaches any of its duties set forth in the General part of the General Terms and Conditions in the clauses 5.2.1 to 5.2.5, 5.2.11 to 5.2.14, 5.2.21 to 5.2.24 or carries out any of the activities defined in the clause 16.4.1 or breaches any of its duties set forth in this special part B of the General Terms and Conditions, respectively if the Subscriber breaches any other duty stated in the agreement and if such breach is connected with the Provider's right to withdraw (notice with immediate effect) from the agreement or Service specification, or in the event that the Subscriber fails to settle, duly and in time, two subsequent bills or the Subscriber has three unsettled bills at least, or the Subscriber is in delay with payment of any of its monetary obligation towards the Provider over the period of three (3) months the Provider has the right to charge the Subscriber a contractual fee amounting to a sum of: (a) 100% of the aggregate sum of recurring monthly costs and minimum monthly payments for the period (even uncompleted) from the day of restraint of the active use of the service and/or termination of the agreement and/or Service specification from the Provider's side owing to the Subscriber's breach of duties till the end of the stipulated term of the agreement and/or Service specification and/or till the end of a minimum service usage term agreed on for the services under termination. Decisive is the recurring monthly price and minimum monthly payment set forth in the currently valid Services Price List, respectively stated elsewhere in the agreement. In the event that the amount of the contractual fee cannot be assessed pursuant to the previous sentence it stands that the contractual fee is assessed to amount to CZK 10,000 for each service under termination the Subscriber's duties were breached at and for each (even uncompleted) billing period from the date the service active use was restrained on and/or the termination of the agreement and/or Service specification from the Provider's side owing to the Subscriber's breach of duties till the end of the stipulated term of the agreement and/or pertinent Service specification, or till the end of the minimum service usage term agreed on for the services under termination. Entitlement to such contractual fee shall not arise in the case of agreements concluded for an indefinite term in which the minimum service usage term is not stipulated, or – as the case might be – where the minimum service usage term has already expired.

5.2 The Provider is authorized to bill the contractual fee through a separate bill or through the bill together with ICT services. In such case the Provider is to separate contractual fees from other amounts billed. The Subscriber undertakes to settle the contractual fees by their maturity date stated on the pertinent bill. By settling the contractual fees the Subscriber is not exempted from its duty to settle other outstanding amounts. The Provider's right to damage indemnification or Provider's right to withdraw (notice with immediate effect) from the agreement or Service specification is not affected by the exercising or settlement of the contractual fees.

6. RESTRAINT OF A PROVISION OF THE ICT SERVICE

6.1 The Provider is authorized to correct, delete, modify or upgrade the software installed at components of the ICT service any time, if it is presumed that it is required for the purposes of maintenance or increase in a quality of the ICT service. 6.2 The Subscriber is responsible for activities that the Subscriber effectuates through the ICT service; the Subscriber is primarily responsible for the contents of the data the Subscriber stored on hardware and software within the ICT service. The Subscriber undertakes not to perform activities not to misuse the Provider's ICT services for transferring information that might endanger a security of the state or other public interest, is immoral, in variance with customs, principles of fair commercial relations, or is otherwise in variance with generally binding legal regulations, standards, EU standards or international pacts the Czech Republic is bound to, or is in variance with the terms and conditions of the agreement.

6.4 The Subscriber is not authorized to use the Provider's ICT services in order to send unrequested information to the third parties (SPAM), utilize ICT services in a manner endangering, restraining or attacking another server/services or to perform activities that would somehow bother the third parties, violate or could violate their rights, e.g. attack other servers/services and other equipment (DoS), spread viruses, worms, Trojan horses, perform activities publicly known as spoofing of IP or ARP addresses. The Subscriber also declares explicitly that the Subscriber neither will operate public software for data sharing of the P2P type nor will share data within P2P networks through ICT services.

6.5 The Subscriber is responsible for any and all applications running within the ICT service including the data transfers coming from instances the Subscriber induces within the ICT Service. The Subscriber is also responsible for any and all activities the Subscriber realizes through ICT services or within the use of ICT services. The Subscriber is to protect its authentication keys and security access codes received from the Provider. Furthermore, the Provider is authorized especially to interrupt or restrain server operations or provision of the ICT service any time and without any preceding warning of the Subscriber if the Provider discovers any breach of duties set forth in the agreement, in particular in the Service specification, Service description or these General Terms and Conditions, on the Subscriber's side. The Provider is to inform the Subscriber about such restraint of server operations or provision of ICT services without any delay.

7. SOFTWARE OWNERSHIP AND USAGE

7.1 The Subscriber is authorized to install to ICT service legally acquired software only, or use it through ICT services. The Subscriber is to get acquainted with the license terms and conditions of the pertinent software and always adhere to them. The Subscriber is always responsible for any prospective breach of license terms and conditions of the particular software (delivered by the Subscriber, Provider or any third party).

7.2 In the event that the software installed by the Subscriber impacts on the function (due provision) of the ICT service, or – as the case might be – there arises an assumption that the software installed by the Subscriber might impact on the function (due provision of the ICT service) the Subscriber, upon the Provider's requisition, is to remove (uninstall) such software or modify it (e.g. by a modification of the configuration) so that such software would no longer impact on a due provision of the ICT service. If the ICT service is impacted by software installed (used) by the Subscriber, or installed (used) by the third person, the Subscriber allowed to install and/or use such software to, the Provider is not responsible for a provision of the ICT service. In the event that the Subscriber fails to correct the software issue within 2 working days minimally from the pertinent delivery of the pertinent request of the Provider to uninstall or modify software used (installed) within the ICT service the Provider is authorized to restrain or halt the provision of the ICT service to the Subscriber without any preceding warning.

7.3 In the case of the ICT service with a professional service (service administration) the above mentioned shall also apply to software its installation does not require administrator rights.

7.4 In the event that software requires administrator rights it is possible to install it within the Subscriber's ICT service through the Provider's professional service (service administration) as soon as the Provider verifies the impact of such software on the provision of the ICT service and consents to the installation of such software within the ICT service. If the software installation within the ICT service requires a special care and preparation the Provider is authorized to ask the Subscriber for a reimbursement of the price for the additional installation of software according to hours of the actual work performed (refer to hourly rate for a work performed set forth in the currently valid Services Price List).

7.5 The Provider bears no responsibility towards the Subscriber for a delivery of software the Subscriber needs in order to utilize the ICT service and for the installation of which bears responsibility the Subscriber. Similarly, the Provider bears no responsibility for the software, or its functionality, which is installed upon the Subscriber's request.

The Provider primarily bears no responsibility that the software delivered is fully functioning in conjunction with other software of the Subscriber.
